The Day of Jumu'ah: Virtues & Etiquette

These are sample notes to demonstrate the khutbah archive. Replace this file with the Imam's own notes from the admin page.

The best day of the week

Friday holds a special place in the life of a Muslim. Allah calls the believers to it directly in Surah al-Jumu'ah (62:9): when the call to prayer is made on Friday, hasten to the remembrance of Allah and leave off trade. It is a weekly gathering of the community, a reminder, and a renewal of faith.

Preparing for Jumu'ah

- Taking a bath (ghusl) before coming to the prayer.
- Wearing one's best and cleanest clothes, and for men, using perfume.
- Using the siwak or brushing the teeth.
- Coming early. The earlier one arrives, the greater the reward.
- Walking to the masjid with calm and dignity where possible.

Sunnahs of the day

- Reciting Surah al-Kahf during the day of Friday.
- Sending abundant salawat (blessings) upon the Prophet (peace be upon him).
- Making much du'a, seeking the hour on Friday in which supplications are answered.

Etiquette during the khutbah

- Listening attentively and remaining silent during the khutbah.

- Not stepping over the shoulders of people; filling the front rows first.
- Praying two short units (tahiyyat al-masjid) on arrival, even if the khutbah has begun.
- Keeping phones silent and out of sight.

Reflection

Take one lesson home from every khutbah. Write it down, share it with your family over dinner, and try to act on it before the next Friday. Small, consistent steps are beloved to Allah.

At the Islamic Center of Tucson

The khutbah begins at 12:25 PM. Please arrive early to find parking and a place in the prayer hall. Sisters' entrance and childcare details are posted at the masjid.
